

INTERGENERATIONAL POVERTY IN UTAH

UTAH'S FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT

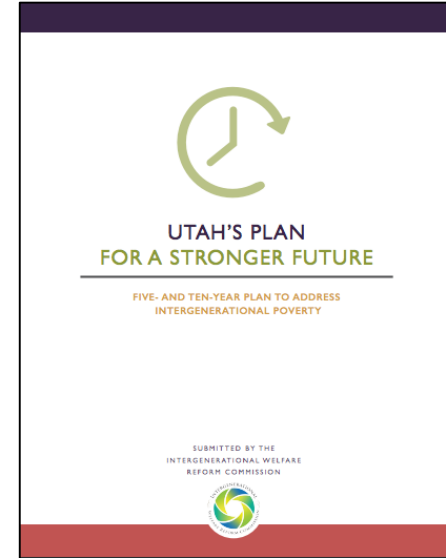

2016 Report:

- Data findings from multiple state agencies
- Key indicators in four focus areas of child well-being:
 - Early Childhood Development
 - Education
 - Family Economic Stability
 - Health

FIVE- AND 10-YEAR PLAN

Utah's Plan to Address Intergenerational Poverty:

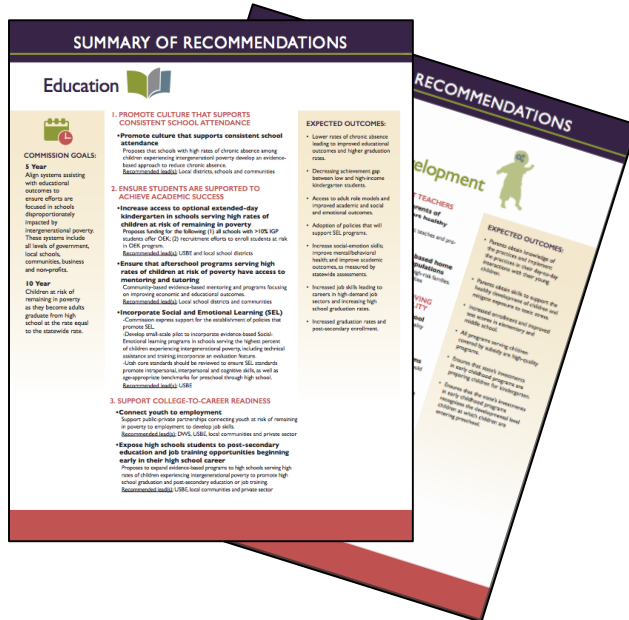

- Commission's Five- and 10-Year Goals
- Recommendations in Focus Areas
- Expected Outcomes
- Recommended Lead(s)

SUMMARY OF RECOMMENDATIONS

Summary of Recommendations:

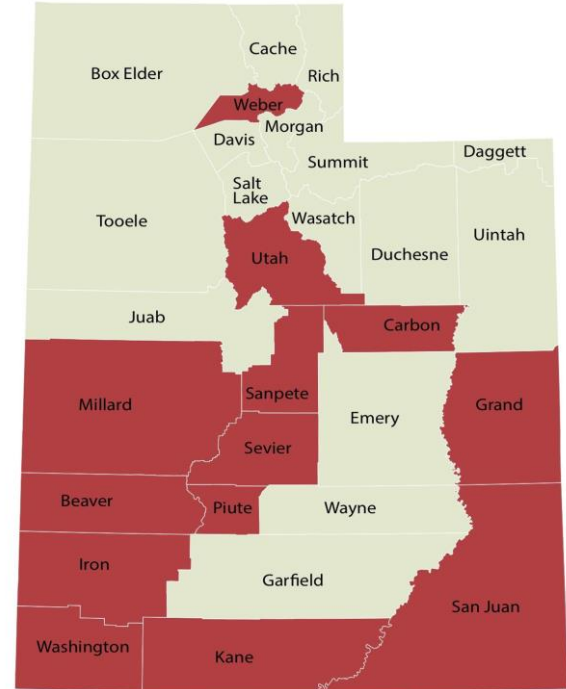

- Data-driven, researched and evaluated by Commission and Advisory Committee
- Recommended leads include public and private sectors
- Make wiser decisions on using limited resources appropriately

COUNTY EFFORTS

Each county is unique in its strengths and challenges:

- Local committees formed in 13 counties to address the issue
- Using local data, county plans are currently being created
- County plans will be submitted in June.

PROMISING PRACTICES

Examples of Promising Practices:

- Utah State University Eastern - Blanding
- Piute County School District
- High-Quality School Readiness Expansion (HQSR-E) Grant